

Renaissance fair (of Colle di Val d'Elsa)

The 2013 edition was the third. During this feast we celebrate the Renaissance period in which there was a strong alliance of Colle and Florence against Siena. Finally, at the end of 16th century Colle acquired the title of city!

The holiday is held on 8th and 9th June. Many people dress up in typical costumes of minstrels, acrobats and nobles of Renaissance.

In the historical centre of the city you can visit military camps, you can see street duels you can eat in outdoor taverns, admire the working of the crystal and all of arts and crafts.

Thanks for your time
