SOCIETÀ DANTE ALIGHIERI

IL MONDO IN ITALIANO

DA

It was founded in 1889 by a group of Italian intellectuals guided by Giosuè Carducci. During the World War I it collaborated with Fascist Schools but later it abandoned the Fascist ideals. It created different stamps in honour of Dante Alighieri, the most important Italian poet.

Its main outcomes are: exhibitions of Italian products, and literature.

It also certifies the level of Italian language for foreigners.

One of the most important Dante Society is situated in Paris.
